

By the Numbers

$1,000,000,000,000

The estimated size of the global market for infrastructure in the next three to five years

$123,000,000,000

The estimated cost to deal with the Canadian "infrastructure deficit"

$2,500,000

Total of project investment leveraged by a 4 to 1 ratio to $10,000,000

200

The number of projects and applications proposed to CT by industry, municipalities, and researchers

98

The number of projects approved

50

The number of projects completed to date

48

The number of projects currently in various stages of development

9

The number of projects in the field testing stage right now

5

The number of projects successfully commercialized to date

100s

The potential number of jobs created by an innovative infrastructure cluster in the next five years

$1,000,000,000+

The potential long-term cost savings for Saskatchewan municipalities from innovative infrastructure solutions

$1,000,000,000,000+

The size of the global market for infrastructure solutions